Our 125th Anniversary!

Mann Valley Swedish Missions Church, circa 1900

April 23, 1894 was the beginning of Swedish Christian Mission Church now known as First Covenant church. They met twice a month at various homes. On March 5, 1895 a building committee was formed, and construction began on a new building on May 20, 1895 and was ready for meeting and dedication service on July 5, 1895.

The church was in Mann Valley on the crossroads between M and MM. Because of those faithful immigrants, here we are today at our fourth location and fourth building continuing the ministry which they began 125 years ago. Praise God! We will celebrate the anniversary of our church on June 23 with a special service of celebration. Plan to be present for this special day.
