

WHERE IS YOUR FOUNDATION?

Matthew 7:24-27

In your daily life, are you allowing space for Jesus to be heard?

- What is one specific thing you can do to allow more space to hear from Jesus?
- Is there a new spiritual discipline you would like to add to your schedule?

When you hear, are you seeking truth?

- Do you ask questions and seek answers in challenging passages?
- Are you trying to fit God's word into your beliefs/desires or having a posture of humility, allowing Scripture to speak into your life? How do you respond to the passages that are uncomfortable and don't fit with your politics or desires?

Are there areas of your life that you have resisted allowing Jesus to have control?
(relationship/habit/money/etc.)

- Write them down. Pray. Make a plan.
- Share this with a friend. Seek accountability to live out God's best for you.
