

GO DEEPER

use these questions for further study

Read Luke's account of Jesus' resurrection and appearances: Luke 24:1-53

Make 2-3 observations about what you see in this text.

What questions do you have about this text?

What is the main point of this passage ?

Have you ever had struggles or doubts about the truth of Christianity or the reality of Jesus' resurrection? If so, what?

Have you been able to express these in the past?

How were you treated when you expressed doubt or questions?

Why is it important for us to put Christianity's truth claims to the test?

Why is it important for Christians to understand the historical and rational basis for their faith?

Pastor Adam said Christianity rises and falls on the reality of the resurrection.

Why is the historicity of the resurrection crucial to the truth claims of Christianity?

How does 1Cor 15:3-6 support this claim?

Why does the reality of the resurrection mean that we need to take the teachings of Jesus seriously?

What aspects of the case for the resurrection do you find most compelling? Why?

If you were to try and explain the evidence for the resurrection in your own words how would you do it?

If you were to explain the importance and implications of the resurrection in your own words what would you say?

Is there anything from this sermon/study that you want to keep exploring?

Is there anything you need to talk through with a mentor or pastor?

GO DEEPER

use these questions for further study

Read Luke's account of Jesus' resurrection and appearances: Luke 24:1-53

Make 2-3 observations about what you see in this text.

What questions do you have about this text?

What is the main point of this passage ?

Have you ever had struggles or doubts about the truth of Christianity or the reality of Jesus' resurrection? If so, what?

Have you been able to express these in the past?

How were you treated when you expressed doubt or questions?

Why is it important for us to put Christianity's truth claims to the test?

Why is it important for Christians to understand the historical and rational basis for their faith?

Pastor Adam said Christianity rises and falls on the reality of the resurrection.

Why is the historicity of the resurrection crucial to the truth claims of Christianity?

How does 1Cor 15:3-6 support this claim?

Why does the reality of the resurrection mean that we need to take the teachings of Jesus seriously?

What aspects of the case for the resurrection do you find most compelling? Why?

If you were to try and explain the evidence for the resurrection in your own words how would you do it?

If you were to explain the importance and implications of the resurrection in your own words what would you say?

Is there anything from this sermon/study that you want to keep exploring?

Is there anything you need to talk through with a mentor or pastor?