

GO DEEPER

use these questions for further study

---

Think back to Sunday's sermon. What did you learn about Christianity's impact on society that you didn't previously know?

Can you name additional ways the Church has blessed society?

How does the history of the Church shaping the modern world impact your view of Christianity?

Read Genesis 1:26-27 and Luke 10: 25-37

Make 2-3 observations about what you see in these texts.

What questions do you have about these texts?

What is the main point of these passages ?

How have these teachings laid the foundation for modern understandings of morality, ethics, human rights, etc.?

Where else do you see these teachings lived out in society or impacting the shape and history of our world?

Why is it important for Christians to know our own history?

Why is it important for Christians to be honest and humble about the times and ways we have failed to live up to our own teachings, ideals, and values?

Where do you see the Church/Christians currently struggling to live up to our beliefs and ideals? What are the negative consequences of this?

What would increased faithfulness from the Church look like?
How can you personally help contribute to it?

Where do you see the Church/Christians making significant positive impacts on the world today?

Read Romans 12:9-21

How do Paul's teachings here compare to those of Jesus?

What would it look like if you lived this out in your own life?

What would it look like if a whole society lived this out?

How is the Spirit inviting you to grow in living out these teachings so that you will be salt and light to the world?

GO DEEPER

use these questions for further study

---

Think back to Sunday's sermon. What did you learn about Christianity's impact on society that you didn't previously know?

Can you name additional ways the Church has blessed society?

How does the history of the Church shaping the modern world impact your view of Christianity?

Read Genesis 1:26-27 and Luke 10: 25-37

Make 2-3 observations about what you see in these texts.

What questions do you have about these texts?

What is the main point of these passages ?

How have these teachings laid the foundation for modern understandings of morality, ethics, human rights, etc.?

Where else do you see these teachings lived out in society or impacting the shape and history of our world?

Why is it important for Christians to know our own history?

Why is it important for Christians to be honest and humble about the times and ways we have failed to live up to our own teachings, ideals, and values?

Where do you see the Church/Christians currently struggling to live up to our beliefs and ideals? What are the negative consequences of this?

What would increased faithfulness from the Church look like?
How can you personally help contribute to it?

Where do you see the Church/Christians making significant positive impacts on the world today?

Read Romans 12:9-21

How do Paul's teachings here compare to those of Jesus?

What would it look like if you lived this out in your own life?

What would it look like if a whole society lived this out?

How is the Spirit inviting you to grow in living out these teachings so that you will be salt and light to the world?