We have all been shaped by the faithfulness of past generations. Share a story or example of how a mom, grandma, aunt, or “spiritual” mom impacted your life positively and built you up in the faith.

Read Hebrews 11:23-24 and Exodus 2:1-10

When you read the Bible do you tend to pay attention to the minor characters like Jochobed (Moses’ mom)? Why or why not?

What can be gained by focusing in on these kinds of stories?

The author of Hebrews says Moses’ parents acted in faith. In what ways did they display faith in God?

In what ways is parenting always an act of faith?

What role does a parent’s faith play in the life of their kid(s)?

In the Hebrew Bible names are often closely linked with people’s character, actions, and story. Jochobed’s name means “Yahweh is glory.” How do her actions and life reflect her name?

How does Jochobed serve as an example for:

Birth Moms?

Adoptive Moms?

“Spiritual” Moms?

Both Moms and Dads?

Jochobed never knew the full impact of her actions or the role her children would play in preparing the world for the Messiah. In what ways is it discouraging not to know the full impact of your present actions? In what ways is it encouraging?

What is one specific way God is inviting you to be like Jochobed and faithfully bless a younger person or younger generation?
